A

ACADEMIC PREDICTORS. See also EMBEDDED FIGURES TESTS (EFT); MIRROR-TRACING TESTS (MTT)
- Evaluation of common predictors for selection of postdoctoral dental students (Handelman, Stanley L., et al.), Mar. 155–159
- Group-administered FDI tests as predictors of grades (abstract) (Kleffner, John H., et al.), Jan. 43
- Mirror-tracing and embedded figures tests as predictors of dental students' performance (Suddick, Richard P., et al.), Mar. 149–154
- Psychomotor skills and technical ability in dental school (Raybould, T. P., et al.), Sept. 594–598
- Waxing test as a predictor of a dental students' success in preclinical and clinical dentistry, The (abstract) (Charlick, Richard E., et al.), Jan. 34–35

ACCOUNTING SYSTEMS
- Responsibility center organization in dental clinic management (Barnett, Peter R., and Andrew W. Krieger), Mar. 187–189

ACCREDITATION. See also COMMISSION ON DENTAL ACCREDITATION; EVALUATION
- Dental students' input into the accreditation process (Faiella, Robert A., and Mark A. Vitale), May 307–310

ADMISSIONS. See also APPLICANTS/APPLICATIONS
- Changes in dental students' personal needs and values (Cain, M. J., et al.), Sept. 604–608

ADVANCED DENTAL EDUCATION. See also CURRICULUM, DOCTORAL
- Advanced general dentistry education programs: issues and forces that will shape the future (VanOstenberg, Paul R.), June 364–368
- Advanced general dentistry education programs (Lynch, Malcolm A.), June 360–363
- Conference summary (Salley, John J.), June 410–413
- General practice residency and advanced education in general dentistry programs: evaluation (Bader, James D.), June 408–409
- Introduction (Bruce, Harry W., Jr.), June 359

ADVANCED EDUCATION IN GENERAL DENTISTRY PROGRAM (AEGD). See also CURRICULUM, DOCTORAL; GENERAL PRACTICE RESIDENCY (GPR)
- Special Issue, June 359–425
- Advanced general dentistry education programs: issues and forces that will shape the future (VanOstenberg, Paul R.), June 364–368
- Advanced general dentistry education programs (Lynch, Malcolm A.), June 360–363
- Career development subsequent to general practice training (Handelman, Stanley L., et al.), Dec. 767–770
- Conference summary (Salley, John J.), June 410–413
- General practice residency and advanced education in general dentistry programs: curriculum (Brody, Harvey A.), June 378–383
- General practice residency and advanced education in general dentistry programs: curriculum (Waltz, Mark E.), June 384–386
- General practice residency and advanced education in general dentistry programs: curriculum (Roth, Gerald I.), June 386–387
- General practice residency and advanced education in general dentistry programs: evaluation (Bader, James D.), June 408–409
- General practice residency and advanced education in general dentistry programs: evaluation (Cassidy, Robert E.), June 398–405
- General practice residency and advanced education in general dentistry programs: evaluation (Schoen, Max H.), June 405–408
- General practice residency and advanced education in general dentistry programs: purposes (Bradley, Richard E.) June 369–373
- General practice residency and advanced education in general dentistry programs: purposes (Eisenbud, Leon), June 374–375
- General practice residency and advanced education in general dentistry programs: purposes (Hasler, John F.), June 376–377

ADVISING, STUDENT
- Computer-assisted advising for dental students (McCutcheon, William R., et al.), May 321–324

AFFECTIVE ASSESSMENT
- Use of affective assessment to plan and evaluate instructional changes (Holland, Jan Carlton, and William F. Vann, Jr.), Dec. 761–766

ALLPORT-VERNON-LINDZEY STUDY OF VALUES (AVL). See VALUES, STUDENT

ANXIETY
- Effects of anxiety across time on performance during a laboratory practical examination, The (abstract) (Thrash, W. James, et al.), Jan. 42–43

APPLICANTS/APPLICATIONS. See also ADMISSIONS; RECRUITMENT
- Dental applicants from the top 50 undergraduate feeder institutions (Solomon, Eric), Aug. 566–567
- First-year enrollment reductions: the applicant decline and revenue loss (Solomon, Eric), Dec. 783

APPLIED RESEARCH
- Innovative nontraditional approaches to the support of research activities in dental schools (Menaker, Lewis), Apr. 281–286

ASSERTION/ASSERTIVENESS. See also INTERPERSONAL SKILLS
- Assertion training: one approach to interpersonal skill training in dentistry (Morton, Judy), Feb. 102–103
- Using videotapes to develop managerial assertiveness (Smith, Timothy A., and Ann Chapman), Feb. 117

ASSESSING CLINICAL OPERATIONS FROM PATIENT CARE, EDUCATION, AND MANAGEMENT PERSPECTIVES
- Symposium, Mar. 169–196
- Symposium overview (Colman, Harvey L.), Mar. 170–177

ATTITUDES, STUDENT. See also STUDENTS; VALUES, STUDENT
- Comparisons of dental and dental auxiliary students' opinions of a specific discipline (abstract) (Burzynski, Norbert J., and James P. Scheetz), Jan. 43–44
- Effect of extramural experiences on dental students' attitudes (Grantham, Emily V., and Marvin J. Block), Oct. 681–684
- Procedures in general dentistry: student perceptions of treatment and plans for care delivery (abstract) (Finkelstein, Mark J., and Lisa A. Tedesco), Jan. 44
- Sex role attitudes of undergraduate dental students (abstract) (Taylor, Mark H., and Devereaux S. Peterson), Jan. 40–41
- Use of affective assessment to plan and evaluate instructional changes (Holland, Jan Carlton, and William F. Vann, Jr.), Dec. 761–766
- Use of a small interactive discussion program for modifying dental students' attitudes (Reeves, John M.), Feb. 105–106
- Using principles of human development in teaching geriatric dentistry (Mahan, J. Maurice, et al.), Dec. 779–782

AUDIOVISUAL MATERIALS. See also TEACHING TECHNIQUES; VIDEOTAPES
- Barriers to effective interpersonal communication: causes and effects of health alienation (Boaz, David E.), Feb. 110–111
- Initial patient encounter: a re-creation through audio- and videotapes, The (McNeal, Donald R., and Timothy A. Smith), Feb. 116
- Three theories of psychological development: implications for children's dentistry (George,

James M., and F. Thomas McIver), Feb. 112–113
Women in science: career education materials for use in counseling and recruitment (abstract) (Black, Christine), Jan. 33–34

B

BEHAVIORAL SCIENCE. See also INTERPERSONAL SKILLS
Special Issue, Feb. 63–123
Behavioral and social science research support from the National Institute of Dental Research (Cohen, Lois K.), Feb. 77–83
Correlates of faculty and student attitudes toward evaluation in behavioral aspects of clinical practice (Cohen, Leonard, et al.), May 346–348
Development of an introductory course in periodontics with a strong behavioral orientation (Baab, David, and Philip Weinstein), Feb. 96–99
Implementation of interpersonal skill training in dental schools (Jackson, Eric, and Jerald O. Katz), Feb. 66–71
Need for new knowledge in behavioral science, The (Scott, David B.), Feb. 75–76
Use of experiential techniques in interpersonal skill training (Gershen, Jay A.), Feb. 72–75
BIOCHEMISTRY
Guided design strategy in the biochemistry laboratory, The (Adams, A. Birk), May 317–320
BIOMEDICAL RESEARCH
Planning and conducting research activities (Christiansen, Richard L.), Apr. 258–261
BIOMEDICAL RESEARCH SUPPORT GRANT (BRSG)
Innovative nontraditional approaches to the support of research activities in dental schools (Menaker, Lewis), Apr. 281–286
BUDGETING TECHNIQUES
Budgeting techniques and dental school administration (Comer, Robert W., et al.), Mar. 177–181

C

CANCER
Comparisons of dental and dental auxiliary students' opinions of a specific discipline (abstract) (Burzynski, Norbert J., and James P. Scheetz), Jan. 43–44
Practicum for oral cancer teaching, A (Barr, Charles E., and Marshal D. Goldberg), Mar. 160–162
CAREER COUNSELING
Dental seniors' report on counseling in dental schools, 1983 (Solomon, Eric), Oct. 685–686
Women in science: career education materials for use in counseling and recruitment (abstract) (Black, Christine), Jan. 33–34
CAREER DEVELOPMENT
Career development subsequent to general practice training (Handelman, Stanley L., et al.), Dec. 767–770
Influence of dentist and nondentist parents on predental students' career decisions (abstract) (Kutcher, Mark J., et al.), Jan. 40
CHILDREN. See also PEDIATRIC DENTISTRY
Predictive model of the need for dental services, A (Cretin, Shan, et al.), Nov. 715–724
Relationship between empathic dentist behavior and children's cooperation, The (Stave, Jonathan A.), Aug. 555–557
Three theories of psychological development: implications for children's dentistry (George, James M., and F. Thomas McIver), Feb. 112–113
CLINICAL DECISION ANALYSIS
Clinical decision analysis methods applied to diagnostic tests in dentistry (Douglass, Chester W., and Barbara J. McNeil), Nov. 708–712
CLINICAL EVALUATION. See also EVALUATION
Evaluation of practical clinical examinations (Berrong, Joseph M., et al.), Oct. 656–663
CLINICAL OPERATIONS. See also DENTAL SCHOOL CLINICS
Assessing clinical operations (Lunin, Martin), Mar. 175–177
Model for cost-containment planning in dental clinics (Bauer, Louis B.), Mar. 190–193
Symposium overview (Colman, Harvey L.), Mar. 170–177
CLINICAL PRACTICE
Correlates of faculty and student attitudes toward evaluation in behavioral aspects of clinical practice (Cohen, Leonard, et al.), May 346–348
CLINICAL SERVICES
Clinical experience in dental hygiene programs: frequency related to perceived importance and difficulty (abstract) (Boyer, E. Marcia, and Nancy Jean Nielsen), Mar. 141
CLINICAL TEACHING
Factor analysis of students' rating of clinical teaching, A (abstract) (Romberg, Elaine), Mar. 140–141
Improving clinical teaching by videotaping performance (Green, Thomas G., et al.), Feb. 118–119
CLINICAL TECHNIQUES
First-year experience with a performance simulation system (Boyd, Marcia A., and David Donaldson), Oct. 666–670
CLINIC PATIENTS
Dental students' payment for patient treatment (Gardiner, James F., et al.), Dec. 774–776
Facilitating student and patient satisfaction: the role of patient care coordinators (abstract) (Hasler, John F., et al.), Jan. 35
Infection control in North American dental schools (Sampson, Elise, and Virendra B. Dhuru), May 329–335
Mainstreaming the special patient experience into undergraduate clinic treatment areas through the DAU-TEAM program (abstract) (Martin, Michael D., and Chris Nusbacher), Jan. 35
Systems approach to solving patient flow problems, A (Grembowski, David), Mar. 181–187
COLLABORATIVE PRACTICE
Collaborative practice model: the future of dental hygiene (Darby, Michele Leonardi), Sept. 589–593
COMMISSION ON DENTAL ACCREDITATION. See also ACCREDITATION
Dental students' input into the accreditation process (Faiella, Robert A., and Mark A. Vitale), May 307–310
General practice residency and advanced education in general dentistry programs: evaluation (Bader, James D.), June 408–409
General practice residency and advanced education in general dentistry programs: evaluation (Cassidy, Robert E.), June 398–405
COMMUNICATION. See also INTERPERSONAL SKILLS
Barriers to effective interpersonal communication: causes and effects of health alienation (Boaz, David E.), Feb. 110–111
COMPUTER-ASSISTED ADVISING SYSTEM
Computer-assisted advising for dental students (McCutcheon, William R., et al.), May 321–324
COMPUTER-ASSISTED BEHAVIORAL SKILLS TRAINING SYSTEM
Development of a computer-assisted behavioral skills training system (Waller, Wayne), Feb. 107–109
COMPUTERS
Introduction to computers in dentistry (abstract) (Bhat, Mohandas), Jan. 38–39
CONFERENCE. See CONFERENCE ON DENTAL SERVICES RESEARCH; CONFERENCE ON GENERAL PRACTICE RESIDENCY AND ADVANCED GENERAL DENTISTRY PROGRAMS; NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON APPLIED BEHAVIORAL SCIENCE; NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON ROLE OF RESEARCH IN DENTAL EDUCATION; PROCEEDINGS, 60TH ANNUAL SESSION
CONFERENCE ON DENTAL SERVICES RESEARCH. See also RESEARCH
Special Issue, Nov. 695–737
Introduction to the special issue (White, Raymond P., Jr., and Miriam Bachar Settle), Nov. 697–698
CONFERENCE ON GENERAL PRACTICE RESIDENCY AND ADVANCED GENERAL DENTISTRY PROGRAMS
Special Issue, June 359–425
Conference summary (Salley, John J.), June 410–413
Introduction (Bruce, Harry W., Jr.). June 359
CONTINUING EDUCATION
Review articles for continuing education in pharmacology (Dionne, Raymond A.), Aug. 547–549
COST CONTAINMENT
Model for cost-containment planning in dental clinics (Bauer, Louis B.), Mar. 190–193
COURSES, PREDOCTORAL. See also CURRICULUM
Assertion training: one approach to interpersonal skill training in dentistry (Morton, Judy), Feb. 102–104
Combined teaching approach for a preclinical technique course, A (Bazan, Mary Tallerico, and W. Sue Seale), May 343–345
Development of an introductory course in periodontics with a strong behavioral orientation (Baab, David, and Philip Weinstein), Feb. 96–99
Guided design strategy in the biochemistry laboratory, The (Adams, A. Birk), May 317–320
Iatrosedation: the treatment of fear in the dental patient (Friedman, Nathan), Feb. 91–95
Interpersonal skills training in a dental setting: a group interaction approach (Eigenbrode, Charles R.), Feb. 86–90
Introduction to computers in dentistry (abstract) (Bhat, Mohandas), Jan. 38–39
Patient management: the ultimate in interpersonal skill building (Logan, Henrietta L.), Feb. 101–102
Quality assurance and third-party payments:

a simulation (abstract) (Raborn, G. Wayne, et al.), Jan. 39
Teaching combined restorative periodontal procedures (Collins, J. Frank, and Donald E. Antonson), Sept. 623–625
Use of a small interactive discussion program for modifying dental students' attitudes (Reeves, John M.), Feb. 105–106
CRANIOFACIAL GENETICS
Research on craniofacial genetics and developmental biology: implications for the future of academic dentistry (Slavkin, Harold C.), Apr. 231–238
CURRICULAR GUIDELINES
Curricular guidelines in occlusion, Aug. 561–565
CURRICULUM. See also COURSES, PREDOCTORAL; CURRICULUM, DENTAL HYGIENE; CURRICULUM, DOCTORAL; CURRICULUM, PREDOCTORAL
Decreased prevalence of dental caries—influence on curriculum design: commentary (Cherrick, Henry M.) Apr. 267–269
Decreased prevalence of dental caries: influence on curriculum design (Reed, Michael J., and Wallace V. Mann, Jr.), Apr. 262–266
Effect of extramural experiences on dental students' attitudes (Grantham, Emily V., and Marvin J. Block), Oct. 681–684
Learner-centered versus subject matter-centered curricular design: effects on retention (abstract) (Parker, M. Elaine, and Elaine Romberg), Jan. 41
Quality of education (Morris, Alvin L.), Oct. 643–649
Treatment distributions in dental practice (Bader, James D., and Alan L. Kaplan), Mar. 142–148
Value of research experience for undergraduate dental students: commentary and discussion summary, The (Gibson, William A.), Apr. 279–280
Value of research experience for undergraduate dental students, The (Clarkson, Brian H., and Nellie W. Kremenak), Apr. 276–278
CURRICULUM, DENTAL HYGIENE. See also DENTAL HYGIENE/HYGIENIST

Applied dental practice: a streamlined and integrated approach to the teaching of DAU, TEAM, and practice management (abstract) (Morton, Judy C., et al.), Jan. 36
Clinical-pathologic forum in oral pathology, The (Eisenber, Ellen, and David J. Krutchkoff), Aug. 552–554
Implementation of interpersonal skill training in dental schools (Jackson, Eric, and Jerald O. Katz), Feb. 66–71
Integration of practice management into the clinical setting (abstract) (Serio, Francis G., et al.), Jan. 37
Interpersonal skills training for dental students in an interdisciplinary core curriculum (Kaplis, Norma A.), Feb. 99–100
Interpersonal skills training in a dental setting: a group interaction approach (Eigenbrode, Charles R.), Feb. 86–90
Suggested model for interpersonal skills training in dentistry, A (Brown, James C.), Feb. 84–85

D

DAU-TEAM PROGRAMS
Applied dental practice: a streamlined and integrated approach to the teaching of DAU, TEAM, and practice management (abstract) (Morton, Judy C., et al.), Jan. 36
Mainstreaming the special patient experience into undergraduate clinic treatment areas through the DAU-TEAM program (abstract) (Martin, Michael D., and Chris Nusbacher), Jan. 35
DECISION MAKING
Alternative: a decision-making guide for dental graduates, An (abstract) (Quinn, James E., and F. Dean St. Arnault), Jan. 38
DECISION MATRIX
Clinical decision analysis methods applied to diagnostic tests in dentistry (Douglass, Chester W., and Barbara J. McNeil), Nov. 708–712
DENTAL ADMISSION TEST (DAT). See ACADEMIC PREDICTORS DENTAL CARE SERVICES, NEED FOR
Discussion summary (Settle, Miriam Bachar, and Raymond P. White, Jr.), Nov. 725–727
Predictive model of the need for dental services, A (Cretin, Shan, et al.), Nov. 715–724
Role for dental health services research, A (Richmond, Julius B.), Nov. 701–703
DENTAL CARIES
Decreased prevalence of dental caries—influence on curriculum design: commentary (Cherrick, Henry M.), Apr. 267–269
Decreased prevalence of dental caries: influence on curriculum design (Reed, Michael J., and Wallace V. Mann, Jr.), Apr. 262–266
Research on dental caries: implications for the future of academic dentistry (Mandel, Irwin W.), Apr. 222–226
DENTAL CONSULTANTS
Assessing clinical operations (Lunin, Martin), Mar. 175–177
DENTAL EDUCATION
Dental education in a capitalistic society: Dr. Hein's response (letter) (Hein, John W.), May 304–306
Use of the structured interview to identify key concepts and hypotheses concerning innovations in dental education (abstract) (Chambers, David W., and Shelly D. Freisinger), Jan. 41
DENTAL HEALTH CENTER
Assessing clinical operations (Lunin, Martin), Mar. 175–177
DENTAL HEALTH SERVICES RESEARCH. See also RESEARCH
Special Issue, Nov. 695–737
Discussion summary (Settle, Miriam Bachar, and Raymond P. White, Jr.), Nov. 725–727
